LAMAR'S CAREER PROSPECTS

Not only has Odom been cast out of the Kardashian empire, but his 14-year career in the NBA may be on its last legs. Since the forward is not currently signed, an NBA source says, "He will need to get well and hopefully catch on with a team midseason." Whether he's fit to play is another question. Registered dietitian Rachel Beller, author of Eat to Lose, Eat to Win, estimates from photos taken a year apart, "Lamar has lost about 30 to 35 pounds." Shocking transformation aside, a pal says Odom was having secret talks to rejoin the L.A. Lakers before his problems went public.

His 2012–2013 Clippers contract was worth an estimated $8.2 million.
